New Director on the Board

Monday 22nd March 2010

Cornwallis Elt is delighted to announce that Craig Album has joined the business as a Director.

Craig has nearly 10 years' recruitment experience having worked with Cornwallis Elt at the very start of his career as a Researcher, followed by Drax Dearman and subsequently the last 6 years at Astbury Marsden where he built teams across their Contracts, Banking and International divisions and was a member of the Board helping to drive the business forwards.

Craig joins us to help grow all areas of the business and in particular to help establish our International team and provide extra focus on recruiting and retaining talent into the company.
