Circuit of Kent Cyclo Sportive

Monday 13th September 2010

Yesterday Cornwallis Directors Russell McIntyre and Tim Skelding completed 80km and 130km cycle rides in the annual Circuit of Kent cyclo sportive, described below by Cycling Weekly magazine;

"The route of the Sportive follows the countryside of the Darling Buds of May, of oast houses, orchards and hop fields, and of some imagined rural idyll of the early 1950s. Although close to London, the "Garden of England" is, once you get south of Maidstone and the M20, a rural paradise of tiny lanes meandering between sleepy villages."

Both Russell (2 hours 57 for 80km) and Tim (4 hours 35 for 130km) received the Silver medal award for their efforts.
