2nd place at Cowes Week

Monday 9th August 2010

Cornwallis Managing Director led his crew aboard "Shadowfax" to a highly commendable 2nd place in the Tacktick Suunto Sigma 33's championship at Cowes Week, the 184 year old Regatta.

Cowes Week 2010 was especially challenging with changeable weather conditions making for a week of fast paced and exciting racing for the 896 entries and around 8,000 sailors who were competing. Coupled with the associated events of the Extreme Sailing Series, Artemis Challenge and 1851 Cup, new classes to the regatta, and a pop-up restaurant by Michelin-starred chef Robert Thompson, Cowes Week was one of the key British sporting events of the summer. Congratulations Andy!
