Cornwallis make the Fast Track 100 again!

Monday December 3rd 2007

Cornwallis Elt is delighted to announce that the company has for the second year running gained entry into The Sunday Times Virgin Fast Track 100 list.

Fast Track 100 ranks Britain's hundred fastest growing, unquoted companies by sales growth over a three year period (2004 - 2007) and is widely recognised as one of the key benchmarks of success for entrepreneurs within the UK. For 2007, Cornwallis Elt has achieved a placing in the list of 28th, having seen annual sales growth of just over 100% during this period and its turnover increase from £1.2 Million in 2004 to £9.8 Million in 2007.

Founded in 2001, Cornwallis Elt provides IT professionals to the Fund Management, Investment Banking and Insurance communities. Managing Director Tim Skelding commented; "Making the list for both 2006 and 2007 is a fantastic achievement for everyone involved in the business. The company's primary goal is to build and develop close long term relationships with our clients and suppliers and I think the benefits of doing so are reflected in our continued growth, even despite the current uncertainty in the financial markets. We feel confident that by remaining focused on providing first class customer service, that we will see further growth and success over the coming years."

The full list for 2007, as featured in The Sunday Times on 2nd December, can be found on the Fast Track website;
