Investment Banking Technology

Cornwallis Elt has a first class recruitment model servicing the IT recruitment needs of the Investment Banking community. We have an outstanding track record of delivery driven by our superb candidate network and database in this sector and our detailed understanding of our clients' businesses, their systems and the challenges they face.

Our clients include Investment and Commercial Banks, Institutional Brokers and Software Houses producing sell-side systems. We also have strong relationships with Outsourced Recruitment Solution Providers as well as the Banks directly.

Our primary focus is on recruiting "Business Facing Technologists" with a deep understanding of the Investment Banking business and the specific applications within this area. We recruit on a permanent, contract and retained search basis.
