

Office Expansion

Monday 5th March 2007

Cornwallis Elt is delighted to announce that it has expanded its offices through securing additional space within their existing building, 2 Finch Lane, London.

The offices are an ideal location for conducting business in the City, being located only two minutes walk from Bank station.

The additional space is being used both to support growth in the business in terms of new hires as well as creating a better working environment for existing staff.
