Senior Hires within the Fund Management Team

Monday 5th July

Cornwallis Elt is delighted to announce that Pam Singh and Duncan Smith have joined the company within the Asset and Wealth Management team.

Pam and Duncan join us as Principal Consultants from Fusion where they have worked together over the last 10 years recruiting technology and business led roles within the fund management arena spanning both contract and permanent hires.

Sales Director Russell McIntyre commented; "Pam and Duncan have been on our radar for a number of years as competitors and it is fantastic that we have been able to bring them into the business. Fund Management remains our biggest revenue stream and we are excited that Pam and Duncan can strengthen our proposition both to existing clients as well as helping us to win and deliver to new accounts."

As Principal Consultants they will concentrate on mid to senior level roles in both our core technology business as well as growing our capabilities in operations and business change areas.
