Cornwallis Elt at the Sense International Gala Ball

Monday 7th March 2011

Cornwallis Elt were delighted to take a table of guests and sponsor an advertisement in the programme for the Sense International Ball on Friday 4th March at the Grand Connaught Rooms in Covent Garden.

Sense International is a small specialist charity who work with deaf blind children and their families globally - mostly in developing countries, and help them learn to communicate and lead more fulfilling lives.

The Ball was a fantastic evening with a champagne reception, 4 course Menu created by 2010 MasterChef winner Dhruv Baker, a live auction taken by Jeffrey Archer, entertainment from Bollywood Dance London, Siyaya and a Silent as well as live Disco!

Cornwallis Elt are proud to have been involved in supporting Sense International both at previous events and at the Gala Ball and we look forward to working with them in the future.
