Cornwallis team wins inaugural Urban Golf Winter Invitational

Thursday 22nd March 2007

Cornwallis Elt last week won the inaugural Urban Golf Winter Invitational, an exclusive winter golf challenge event at Urban Golf Smithfield sponsored by Jack Barclay Bentley, dunhill and Stoke Park Club.

The team qualified by playing the last five holes of the Old Course at St Andrews in level par to make the final to be contested by seven teams. In the final, they played the first four holes of Pine Hills in four under par to reach the grand final.

Thanks to the long driving of Charlie Bingham and an eagle putt holed on the last by Toby Smith, Cornwallis beat Brewin Dolphin Securities, once again completing the same four holes in four under par.

The prize includes a golf day at Stoke Park Club with the winners being chauffer driven to and from the club in Bentleys!
