

Director Andy Johns clinches 'Class 7' victory on the final days racing!

Cornwallis Elt are proud to announce the success of Director Andy Johns' crew in their final days dramatic racing to clinch victory. Andy and his crew have been regulars at Cowes for a number of years, enjoying the racing and annual festivities. However, for the past couple of years the racing has been at the forefront and clocking up podium finishes for the previous two years, they finally claim the top spot in Class 7! Well done Andy & crew! Maybe it was Johns Junior that was the missing ingredient?
